

Multicultural Community Family Services
dedicated to serving immigrant children and families

COME AND JOIN US UNDER THE PALAVA HUT!

Let's talk about the Immigrant Community's
Response to COVID-19

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 2022
6-8 PM
7016 TERMINAL SQUARE
UPPER DARBY, PA 19082

Palava Hut is a traditional practice used in parts of Africa to talk about community issues and find solutions within the community.

Please Register.
Limited Slots Available.

Registration is Open.

Register at:

palavahutconversations.rsvpify.com

Refreshments Provided.

$15.00 Gift Cards Participation Incentive Provided.

MCFCS Palava Hut Conversation "Let's Talk About the Immigrant Community Response to COVID-19" is a collaboration between MCFCS, Temple University COVID-19 Trauma Informed Workforce Initiative, the Coalition of African Communities (AFRICOM), the United Nimba Citizens Council (UNICCO), Rising Hope for Change (RHFC) and the All Liberian Diaspora Women Organization (ALDWO).

Funding for MCFCS "Let's Talk About the Immigrant Community Response to COVID-19" Palava Hut Conversation is provided by the Temple University COVID-19 Trauma Informed Workforce Initiative and the Philanthropy Network Greater Philadelphia.