

Multicultural Community Family Services
dedicated to serving immigrant children and families

Bringing Community Voices to Community Issues

MULTICULTURAL COMMUNITY FAMILY SERVICES

Hosts

Palava Hut Conversations

The Palava Hut as a concept and tool, is implemented in many parts of Africa, and especially in Liberia, West Africa. It is the central gathering space that welcomes all; a place where community members convene to promote dialogue between people of diverse opinions, backgrounds and cultures; and problem solve issues in a way that contributes to peace and wellbeing within communities).

Come and Let's talk about Public Health Services in Delaware County

With Paulani Mui and Beth Resnick
of

Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health

When: Thursday, February 27, 2020
6:00 pm to 8:15 pm (Refreshments Provided)

Where: Multicultural Community Family Services
7016 Terminal Square, Upper Darby, PA 19082

For More Information: Contact Multicultural Community Family Services at 484-461-8660

Palava Hut Conversations, a Multicultural Engagement Initiative of MCFCS, brings community voices to community issues.